Because of the Easter Holiday I am writing these notes before our game last Saturday against Middlesbrough.

But I would like to concentrate, for once, on bringing the exploits of our youngsters to your attention.

Steve Carroll took his Youth Team to Springfield Park, Wigan last Thursday night for the Lancashire F.A. Youth Cup replay and the lads delighted all of us by coming away with a 1-0 victory.

When you considered they outplayed Wigan in the original match, found themselves two goals down and snatched a replay with a goal in the last minute at Burnden, they showed great character and not a little skill in the second match.

After a goalless first half in which neither team looked like scoring, Paul Griffin and Nicky Brookman both went close before Nicky sealed things ten minutes from time with a 15 yard effort.

Make no mistake these youngsters deserve the chance to match themselves against Manchester City in the semi final here at Burnden Park next Tuesday (April 21st), kick off 7 p.m.

I know the Youth Team would appreciate your support on the night.

It's been encouraging to me this season that I've been able to consider several of the Youth team for League duty and given a first team debut to Ian Mullineaux.

Today Mark Gavin will be relishing the chance to display his skills against his former club. We'll all be looking for an all out effort against a team which needs the points every bit as much as we do.

Carlisle in danger of further drop

By Tony Pullein

Carlisle, whose four-year spell as a Second Division club ended last May, are now in danger of suffering further relegation. But the Cumbrians still have time to pull clear of the bottom four places and their 1-0 victory at Port Vale last weekend will have given them great encouragement.

It was their third away in the League, following earlier successes at Blackpool (2-1) and Darlington (1-0). They have drawn at Chester (2-2), Newport (1-1), and Bury (0-0).

All their other away games ended in defeat at Bristol City (0-3), Doncaster (0-2), Gillingham (0-1), Wigan (0-2), Bournemouth (1-2), Swindon (0-2), Chesterfield (2-3), Middlesbrough (0-1), Fulham (0-3), Brentford (1-3), Mansfield (0-2), York (0-2) and Walsall (0-3).

They took an early exit from all Cup competitions. In the Littlewoods Cup they lost 1-2 on aggregate to Grimsby in the first round. They also went at the first stage of the F.A. Cup, losing at Notts County (0-3) after drawing 1-1 at Brunton Park.

Carlisle took maximum points from their two group games in the Freight-Rover Trophy but then lost at home to Preston (1-2) in the first round of the knockout stage.

Carlisle United were elected to the Football League's Third Division (North) in 1928, remaining there until becoming a founder member of the Fourth Division in 1958. Depressed at the prospect of life in the Fourth, the directors tried to apply for admission to the Scottish League!

But, though Berwick Rangers are an English club in the Scottish League, that competition refused to accept their application and Carlisle soldiered on in England.

After a couple of moves between the Fourth and Third Divisions, Carlisle moved into Division Two for the first time in 1965. In 1974 they made their way into the First Division but they stayed for only one campaign. In 1977 they returned to the First Division, remaining until 1982.

Their last spell of Second Division play lasted four seasons, ending with relegation last May.

THE CARLISLE SQUAD

HARRY GREGG (Manager). Harry took over as Carlisle's manager last summer after a spell as club coach. He won fame as a goalkeeper, playing for N. Ireland on 25 occasions. Doncaster signed him from Coleraine in 1952. Prior to coming into English football, he also had a spell with Linfield. Manchester United signed him in 1958 and he served the Old Trafford club for eight years before signing for Stoke City where he completed his playing days. He turned to coaching and took managerial appointments at Shrewsbury and Swansea before joining Carlisle.

ERIC NIXON (Goalkeeper). Eric, who is on loan from Manchester City, has had the odd distinction of playing in all four divisions of the Football League this season during loan spells with Wolves (Division Four), Oldham (Division Two), Bradford City (Division Two) and Southampton (Division One). He made his bow in First Division football with Manchester City last season.

GEOFF LOMAX (Defender). Geoff also started his professional career with Manchester City, making his League debut during 1982/83. He completed 25 League appearances for the Maine Road club before moving to Carlisle last season.

BILLY WRIGHT (Defender). Billy won England under-21 and England 'B' caps in his Everton days. He made more than 160 First Division appearances for the Toffees and then signed for Birmingham in 1983. Carlisle signed him last summer.

WES SAUNDERS (Defender). Wes won England youth honours during his early days with Newcastle and made his League debut for the Magpies in 1981. After a loan period with Bradford City, he joined Carlisle during the summer of 1985.

PAUL HAIGH (Defender). Paul made his name with Hull City, winning England under-21 honours in his Boothferry Park days. Carlisle signed him for £100,000 in 1980 and he has since been a fixture in their defence.

PAUL GORMAN (Midfield). Paul served his apprenticeship with Arsenal and, though he played only half-a-dozen times in the Gunners' first-team, he was picked for the Republic of Ireland under-21 side. Birmingham signed him in 1984 but he remained with them for only a few weeks before joining Carlisle.

DAVID BAKER (Midfield). David started his professional career with Southampton, though he did not get into their first team. He joined Carlisle during the 1985 close-season and established himself in their League eleven, last season.

IAN BISHOP (Midfield). Ian developed in Everton's junior teams but he made his League debut whilst on loan to Crewe in 1983/84. He returned to Goodison Park to make a brief appearance in the Toffees' First Division side and he was transferred to Carlisle two seasons ago.

JOHN COOKE (Forward). John completed his apprenticeship with Sunderland and made well over 50 first-team appearances for the Roker club before initially joining Carlisle on loan two seasons ago. He returned to Sunderland and was transferred to Sheffield Wednesday at the start of last season. After only a few weeks, he was on the move again to Carlisle.

MALCOLM POSKETT (Forward). Malcolm returned for his second spell at Brunton Park at the start of the season. He was once released by Middlesbrough and went non-League with Whitby Town. Malcolm was then transferred to Hartlepool — for £25! — and, after topping their scoring list in his first season, he joined Brighton for £60,000. Next came a £120,000 move to Watford and, in his first full season, he was top scorer with 21 goals in 1980/81. He initially joined Carlisle in 1982 and became a top scorer with the Cumbrians. Darlington signed him in 1985 but he then moved on to Stockport County.

GARY WORRALL (Forward). Gary was a reserve player with Manchester United and he got his career off the ground after joining Peterborough in 1983. Carlisle signed him last summer.

PROGRAMME FAIR

The 11th Annual Rochdale Football Fair will take place in the Rochdale Social Club at Spotland on Sunday 26th April 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Thousands of programmes both old and new will be available and admission is free.

THE TROTTERS THIRTEEN

The fourth annual Wanderers half marathon will take place tomorrow morning with a 10 a.m. start from Burnden Park. The route is the same as used for last year's race in which over 500 runners took part.

This year's charity is Vision Aid who help blind and partially sighted children and entry forms are still available from the offices or entry on the day will be taken.

LOWEST EVER

The crowd of 1193 that were at Somerton Park to see the Wanderers play Newport County is the lowest that Bolton have played a League game in front of in modern day times. A miserable day, along with the fact that Wales were playing a rugby union international and the Grand National was being run on the same day, were blamed by the Welshmen who were at least cheered by the result. It proved to be a double for Newport as that morning they won 3-2 in a supporters game that was played in a mudbath.

NEW FACES

A couple of new faces were on show to Wanderers supporters against Wigan at Burnden although neither Ian Stevens nor Nick Brookman need any introduction to Central League enthusiasts.

Stevens, who has a similar style to former Wanderer Brian Kidd, has scored four goals in seven reserve games and has League experience with Preston North End. Brookman, who is still eligible for the youth team, has been a consistent performer in the reserves and has proved his versatility by having worn five different shirts in both defence and midfield.

COLLECTORS CORNER

Today we reproduce the programme from a second division game played between the sides at Brunton Park in October 1968.

At the time United were without a manager and were at the foot of the table after eleven games without a win. The Wanderers on the other hand were in mid-table with eleven points from the same number of games. Charlton and Middlesbrough headed the table with fifteen points.

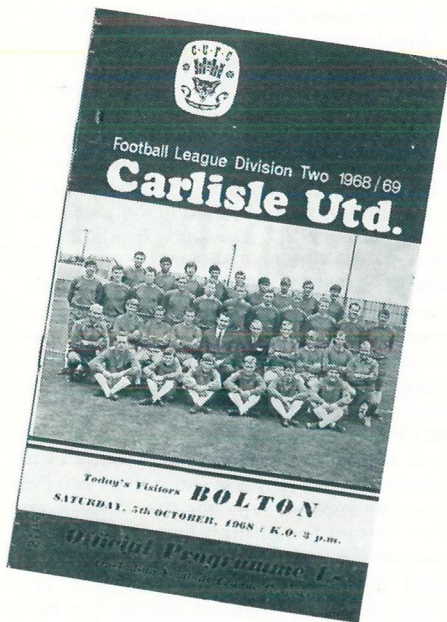

The two sides were:

Bolton: Hopkinson, Ritson, Farrimond, Rimmer, Hulme, Hatton, Wharton, Hill, Greaves, Bromley, Taylor. Sub: Byrom.

Carlisle: Ross, McConnell, Caldwell, Tennant, Passmoor, Garbutt, McVitie, Murray, McIlmoyle, Balderstone, Sharp. Sub: Barton.

The Wanderers took the lead in the 29th minute when Freddy Hill crashed home a free kick from the edge of the penalty area. United keeper Alan Ross made some fine saves and six minutes from time substitute Carlisle forward Frank Barton equalised with a twenty yard shot.

Flashback

We welcome Carlisle United to Burnden Park today for the 22nd Football League game between the clubs.

This is the first season that our paths have crossed in the third division all the previous games taking place at second division level the first being in season 1965/66.

United have a good record at Burnden with perhaps their best victory coming in March 1977 when they won 4-3 although they were relegated at the end of that season. The scorers in that seven goal thriller were Sam Allardyce and a Neil Whatmore double for the Wanderers with United's goals being scored by Bill Rafferty, Mick Tait and a George McVitie double.

United's last visit to Burnden was in December 1982 when a goal from Paul Jones was enough to give Bolton the points although the following April the Wanderers crashed 5-0 at Brunton Park.

The clubs also clashed in that season's Milk Cup with Bolton winning 4-0 at home after a 3-3 draw at Carlisle in the two legged first round. The game at Burnden saw Carlisle defender Dave Rushberry become the first player to be sent off under the professional foul law for deliberate handball and Mike Doyle netted the Wanderers 100th League Cup goal.

Earlier this season a scoreless draw resulted at Brunton Park with the Wanderers keeping only their second clean sheet on their visit's there.

Our Football League record against Carlisle is as follows:

	PL	W	D	L	F	A
HOME	10	4	2	4	15	11
AWAY	11	1	3	7	7	23
TOTAL	21	5	5	11	22	34

15 YEARS AGO

19th April 1972. The Wanderers defeated Torquay United 2-0 at Burnden with John Byrom opening the scoring in the 9th minute with his 100th League goal. Garry Jones scored the second in the 54th minute and although United lost their keeper through injury there were no more goals.

22nd April 1972. The Wanderers denied Brighton's promotion hopes by drawing 1-1 at the Goldstone Ground before 25,074. Both goals came from the penalty spot. Bert Murray for the home side in the 56th minute, awarded for a foul and Garry Jones for the Wanderers in the 75th minute, awarded for handball.

10 YEARS AGO

22nd April 1977. Bolton drew 1-1 at Charlton Athletic in a Friday evening fixture with manager Ian Greaves claiming the Wanderers were cheated out of victory.

Neil Whatmore gave Bolton the lead in the 82nd minute clipping the ball into the net from a Steve Taylor inside pass for his 28th of the season. Charlton's controversial goal came a minute from time when from a Keith Peacock free kick, Jim Giles punched the ball into the net, but despite their protests the referee awarded a goal. John Ritson was booked for dissent along with Sam Allardyce who had to be escorted off the field at the end of the game.

5 YEARS AGO

17th April 1982. The Wanderers London jinx continued, without a win in the capital for over three years, as they went down 3-0 at bottom club Orient.

Orient were without a win in twelve games but swept into a two goal half time lead through Kevin Godfrey and Mark McNeil.

Barry Silkman got the third from a twice taken hotly disputed penalty early in the second half to kill of any hopes of a Bolton comeback.

Wanderers keeper Jim McDonagh turned down the chance of adding to his Eire international caps, pulling out of a friendly with Algeria, the same evening as the Wanderers were due to face Charlton at The Valley.

1. Warren Joyce strikes an artistic pose as he scores the Wanderers' third goal against Port Vale earlier this season.
2. Mark Gavin may be down but he still gets in the cross.

Junior Whites

As we approach the end of our season of meetings all HB Junior Whites send their thanks to the people who work 'back stage' to make sure everything runs smoothly.

To Arthur and the two Vera's who dispense drinks and generally look after the needs of a hundred youngsters and parents; to Elizabeth, Susan and Carolyn who check membership cards, sell raffle tickets and answer a thousand and one queries in the night; to Geoff and Audrey who put together the raffle prizes; to Mike for his immense store of fun games and to John and Steve who give their free time to organise soccer training for the youngsters, our thanks.

Also to Margaret, Beryl and the Development staff for dealing with membership applications on top of their normal duties.

Our last meeting of the season is on Monday, April 27th in the Executive Club starting at 6.30 p.m. And that's the night we present our Player of the Year Award. See you there!

Alan and Kevan.

Reserve Report

30th March 1987.

BOLTON WANDERERS RESERVES 0 STOKE CITY RESERVES 1

The Wanderers were left counting the cost of missing a number of chances and also seeing Stoke keeper Paul Reece in good form as they went down to a single goal defeat.

Bolton dominated the first half with Paul Griffin and Derek Booth seeing their goalbound efforts well saved. Unfortunately for Booth, playing his first game after injury, he hurried his shot in the 25th minute when clear and put his effort wide.

Ian Stevens and Warren Joyce combined well in the 28th minute only for Stevens to see his effort again thwarted by Reece.

It was Stevens who came closest to scoring for the Wanderers when in the 56th minute he made a run on goal from just inside the Stoke half and saw his shot from twenty yards out strike the bar.

Stoke's winner came in the 70th minute, Gary Barker looking offside when he received the ball, crossed to Peter Howard who crashed the ball home.

Chris O'Brien saw a spectacular volley turned over by Reece six minutes later but it was not to be the Wanderers evening.

Team: Mailey, Hughes, Clarke, Joyce, Darby, Welsh, Booth, Griffin, Stevens, Allen, O'Brien. Subs. Mullineux for Griffin, Banks for Booth.

1st April 1987.

BOLTON WANDERERS RESERVES 1 BARNSELY RESERVES 4

The Wanderers didn't come to life until the last fifteen minutes by which time they were three goals down which had all come during the first half.

Defensive errors cost the Wanderers dear, a poor clearance allowing Chandler to give the visitor's a 14th minute lead and the third goal, in first half injury time, was the result of Chandler chasing a lost cause to set up Brolly who made no mistake.

In between the referee awarded a harsh penalty, ruling that Bell had been fouled by Paul Welsh, Lowndes converting the kick.

Seven minutes from time Paul Clarke was on hand at the far post to convert a Paul Griffin cross but as the Wanderers pressed to reduce the arrears further they were caught out in the final minute when Chandler broke clear to net Barnsley's fourth goal.

Team; Mailey, Hughes, Clarke, Banks, Darby, Welsh, Brookman, Griffin, Stevens, Allen, Mullineux. Subs. Senior for Stevens. Callaghan.
